

Privacy Notice: How We Use Personal Information

Introduction

This notice explains how we collect, store, and share personal information. Your privacy and personal information are important to us, and we are committed to keeping it protected. We've tried to make this notice as clear and transparent as possible, so you are confident about how we use your information. As data controller, we are responsible for decisions about how your information will be processed and managed. You will also find details below regarding your rights under data protection laws and how to contact us.

1 Who we are and whose personal information we collect

When we refer to "we", "us" and "our" in this notice it means Allianz Insurance plc, Allianz Engineering Inspection Services Limited, and Liverpool Victoria Insurance Company Limited, who are all part of the Allianz UK Group which includes insurance companies, insurance brokers and other companies owned by the Allianz UK Group. Please click here to see a detailed list of these companies. When we say "you" and "your" and "individuals" in this notice, we mean anyone whose personal information we may collect, including:

- anyone seeking an insurance quote from us or whose details are provided during the quotation process
- policyholders and anyone named on or covered by the policy
- anyone who may benefit from or be directly involved in the policy or a claim, including claimants and witnesses
- anyone who has a business relationship or transacts business with us or provides us with a service, such as brokers, intermediaries and animal breeders

2 The personal information we collect

The information we collect will depend on our relationship with you. We collect the following types of personal information so we can complete the activities in Section 2: How We Use Personal Information:

- basic personal details such as name, age, contact details and gender
- family, lifestyle and social circumstances, such as marital status, dependants and employment type
- data relating to children in some circumstances, for example where the child is a beneficiary under a policy or is involved in a claim
- financial details such as direct debit or payment card information
- photographs and/or video, including surveillance to help us manage policies and assess claims
- identification checks and background insurance risk details including previous claims information
- information collected from your devices relating to your use of our websites, including via the use of cookies (see Section 6 Where we collect personal information below)
- accessibility details if we need to make reasonable adjustments to help
- business activities, such as goods and services offered

In certain circumstances, we may request and/or receive special category or sensitive information about you. We would only collect this information if it is relevant to the insurance policy or claim or where it is necessary for a legal obligation:

- your current or former physical or mental health
- criminal offences, including alleged offences, criminal proceedings, outcomes and sentences (previous criminal convictions, bankruptcies and other financial sanctions such as County Court Judgements)

3 Where we collect personal information

We collect personal information direct from individuals, their representatives or from information they have made public, for example, on social media.

We also collect personal information from other persons or organisations, for example:

- credit reference and/or fraud prevention agencies
- emergency services, law enforcement agencies, medical and legal practices
- insurance industry registers and databases used to detect and prevent insurance fraud, for example, the Motor Insurance Database (MID), the Motor Insurers Anti-Fraud and Theft Register (MIAFTR) and the Claims and Underwriting Exchange (CUE)
- insurance investigators and claims service providers
- other insurers or service providers who underwrite the insurance or provide the services for our products
- other involved parties, for example, claimants, witnesses or business partners
- other Allianz UK Group companies

4 How we use personal information

We use personal information in the following ways:

- to provide quotes, administer policies and policyholder claims and carry out engineering inspections to fulfil our contract
- to administer third party claims, deal with complaints and prevent financial crime to meet our legal obligations

Customers with MiPet Cover branded pet insurance products and policies will be excluded from any marketing activities.

We also use personal information for the legitimate needs of our business. This includes, but is not limited to:

- managing our business
- conducting market research and enhancing customer service
- managing our relationships with business partners
- developing and improving our administration, security services and insurance applications

- providing a service that keeps our customers and suppliers safe by identifying vulnerability to better meet their needs
- We share your information with other Allianz UK Group companies when you submit an insurance application and or claim for the purposes of fraud detection and prevention. Please refer to Section 7, to understand how we share your data in further details.

There is no obligation to provide us with personal information, but we cannot provide our products and services without it.

Anyone whose personal information we hold has the right to object to us using it.

They can do this at any time by telling us and we will consider the request and either stop using their personal information or explain why we are not able to. Further details can be found below.

5 Sharing personal information

We only share your information when necessary for the purposes stated in Section 2: How We Use Personal Information.

We may share personal information with:

- other Allianz UK Group companies
- other companies within the global Allianz Group (visit allianz.com for more details)
- credit reference, fraud prevention and other agencies that carry out certain activities on our behalf, for example, the Motor Insurance Database (MID), the Insurance Fraud Bureau (IFB) and marketing agencies if agreed
- our approved suppliers to help deal with claims or manage our benefit services, for example, vehicle repairers, legal advisors and loss adjusters

Privacy Notice:

- other insurers, third party underwriters, reinsurers, administrators, insurance intermediaries, regulators, law enforcement and the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS); and other companies that provide services to us or you, for example, the Employers Liability Tracing Office (ELTO) and the Claims and Underwriting Exchange (CUE) and network organisations of which you are a member
- providers of data services and data analysts who support us with developing our products and enhancing customer service and experience
- external agencies for market research purposes
- any organisation where you have agreed for them to receive that data as part of the terms and conditions of your membership or affiliation
- third parties in connection with the sale, transfer or disposal of our business

6 How long we keep personal information

We keep information only for as long as we need it to administer the policy, manage our business or as required by law or contract.

7 Transferring personal information outside the UK

We, or third parties acting on our behalf, may need to transfer personal information outside of the UK. In such cases as this is necessary, we shall ensure that any transfer of personal information has adequate safeguards in place to protect your data and privacy rights. Where we transfer to suppliers outside the UK, we ensure that contractual obligations are put in place to maintain the equivalent levels of data protection as we would administer.

For more information about data transfers and the safeguards we have in place, please contact our Data Protection Officer using the details in Section 11 below.

8 Automated decision making, including profiling

We may use automated decision making, including profiling, to assess insurance risks, detect fraud, and administer your policy. This helps us decide whether to offer insurance, determine prices and validate claims.

Anyone subject to an automated decision has the right to object to it. To do so please contact us using the details in Section 10: Know Your Rights and we will review the decision. To do so they should contact us by emailing us at accsm@allianz.co.uk

9 Cookies and similar technologies

Please refer to the MiPet Cover Cookie Policy here to understand cookies in detail and to manage your cookie preferences.

10 Know your rights

Any individual whose personal information we hold has a number of rights in relation to how that information is processed by us. You have the following rights:

- The right to object – individuals can object to us processing their data and we will either agree to stop processing or explain why we are unable to
- The right of access – individuals can request a copy of their personal information we hold, subject to certain exemptions (a subject access request)
- The right of rectification – individuals can ask us to update or correct their personal information to ensure its accuracy
- The right to erasure – individuals can ask us to delete their personal information from our records if it is no longer needed for the original purpose
- The right of restriction – individuals can ask us to restrict the processing of their personal information in certain circumstances
- The right to data portability – individuals can ask for a copy of their personal information, so it can be used for their own purposes
- The right to withdraw consent – individuals can ask us, at any time, to stop processing their personal information, if the processing is based only on individual consent
- The right to make a complaint – individuals can complain if they feel their personal information has been mishandled. We encourage individuals to come to us in the first instance but they are entitled to complain directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) ico.org.uk
